Alcoholic beverages and intoxicants: Clients shall not bring to the AirVenture grounds any alcoholic beverages or any other intoxicants. There are situations where clients may wish to hold a private function that includes catered food or alcoholic beverages after hours within their exhibit space or at another designated location. With written approval from EAA, permission may be granted based on the following requirements:

- Clients must complete and return a fully completed Special Event Request Form with:
 - A diagram of the intended floor plan (if event is being held in your outdoor exhibit booth).
- Insurance Requirements:
 - In addition to the required exhibitor insurance coverage, a valid certificate of insurance will need to include the following:
 - Evidence General Liability with limits not less than $1,000,000
 - Evidence Host Liquor Liability (if serving alcohol)
 - List EAA as additional insured with the exact statement: "Experimental Aircraft Association, Inc., EAA Aviation Foundation Inc., and each of their respective officers, directors, employees, members, affiliates and divisions."
 - 30 day notice of cancellation
 - Waiver of subrogation
- Beverage:
 - Alcoholic beverage service at an exhibit booth may be offered after 5:30 p.m. with a maximum of 3.5 hours of bar service. Start times and end times must be established and adhered to. Alcoholic beverage service on grounds may not run any later than 10:30 pm.
 - All alcohol must be distributed by an EAA bartender licensed by the State of Wisconsin to the client's invited guests; no retail sales will be permitted. Hosted bar events will only be allowed with two drinks per I.D. per service.
 - EAA reserves the right to check for proof of I.D. No one under the age of 21 will be allowed to consume alcoholic beverages for any reason.
 - EAA reserves the right to monitor the function, and at any time, discontinue alcoholic beverage service should it be warranted in EAA's sole judgment.
 - Client is solely responsible for providing transportation with respect to any person that may be under the influence of alcohol.
- Catering:
 - Catering requests must be placed through an EAA approved caterer. EAA must be notified of the selected caterer.
 - Catering requests for non-alcoholic beverages must be placed through an EAA approved caterer.
 - Catered events may not be open to the public, but rather must be by limited invitation only.
- Misc.:
 - Appropriately licensed and approved rental providers must be utilized for any rental service needs.
 - All guests must be able to be contained in the designated event space with no spill over onto roadways or neighboring areas.
 - No events are permitted in Camp Scholler.
 - If security is deemed necessary (events held in your exhibit booth), the client will be billed accordingly.
 - Entertainment must be approved by EAA prior to booking. Entertainers are subject to the same insurance requirements as listed above, which must be met prior to approval.
